

A.N.S.W.E.R. COALITION FILM SHOWING

Five Families Fighting in the Name of Justice

The Cuban Wives

You are invited to an inspiring film about the families of the Cuban Five, the five Cuban men unjustly imprisoned in the United States, who were protecting their country from U.S.-sponsored terrorism. The Cuban Five have been in prison now for 14 years. People in the U.S. and around the world have been campaigning for their freedom.

This film tells the story of the women – the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of Gerardo, Ramón, Antonio, Fernando and René – who work tirelessly night and day to free their men, and the Cuban Five's courage despite the hardships they endure.

There will be a brief introduction to update the audience about the Five's current appeals.

70 min. Produced by Alberto Antonio Dandolo, Spanish with English subtitles
