

Screening of the ground breaking new Cuban film in Sacramento

This unique film documents the personal struggle of Cuban Mavi Susel for full gender expression through sex reassignment surgery.

Wed., April 3, 7pm

The Sol Collective
2574 21st St., Sacramento, CA

It also provides a broader picture of the education and development of a scientific understanding of homophobia and its history, and the application of principles of true equality and democracy in socialist Cuba.
