

A hero is in our midst...

Come to an afternoon community meeting in Tucson to learn about Fernando González, who has been unjustly imprisoned by the U.S. government. He has recently been transferred to Safford minimum security prison, 110 miles east of Tucson.

Sunday, July 8, 4 pm
Southside Presbyterian Church
317 W. 23rd St., Tucson AZ

Fernando González is one of the Cuban Five, five political prisoners who have been imprisoned since 1998 by the U.S. government. They were charged and convicted of conspiracy to commit espionage and other charges.

In reality, the Cuban Five were on a mission in Miami to protect the public — both in Cuba and the United States — from terrorist attacks. For more than 50 years, Cuba has suffered from U.S.-financed anti-Cuba terrorist organizations that are based in Miami.

There is a movement of people across the United States and around the world, campaigning for the freedom of the Cuban Five.

The Cuban Five are men of great honor and pride, having dedicated themselves to save people's lives, in their active opposition to terrorism.

There will be a brief presentation by Gloria La Riva, coordinator of the National Committee to Free the Cuban Five, followed by a short video and discussion. Come learn about the Cuban Five, and share your thoughts!

more info: www.freethefive.org

We are thankful to the Southside Presbyterian Church for making their facilities available. Sponsored by the National Committee to Free the Cuban Five, an organization that was formed in 2001, soon after the Five's convictions. For information call 415-821-6545 or 415-312-6042